Covington Who's Who Selects Dr. James K. Agbodzakey as an Honored Member of the Executive and Professional Registry

1888 Press Release, USA – 1 March 2014
Dr. James K. Agbodzakey, Assistant Professor at Nova Southeastern University, has been selected as an Honored Member of the Covington Who's Who Executive and Professional Registry. The selection recognizes James K. Agbodzakey's commitment to excellence in Higher Education. "Administration, Florida Political Science Association, Pi Alpha Alpha, and International AIDS Society, he was named Employee of the Month by Ohio..."

CROI: TB, HCV in Spotlight Along With HIV
Investor Village, USA – 1 March 2014
"...it is treated early enough. Another promising report at the IAS meeting concerned two HIV-positive men whose allogeneic stem cell transplants..."

Improving adherence in microbicide clinical trials: lessons learned and recommendations
The Independent, Bangladesh – 2 March 2014
HIV Prevention Microbicides are biomedical products being developed to protect people against sexually transmitted infections, including HIV. Some microbicides are being designed as vaginal products for women, and others would be rectal products for either men or women. "...introduction, a recent paper published in the Journal of the International AIDS Society and co-authored by Population Council researcher Barbara..."

World AIDS day Indaba draws lessons from Zambia's success stories
Study Mode, USA – 2 March 2014
World AIDS Indaba Draws Lessons From Zambia's Success Stories BY BEN KANGWA, 9 AUGUST 2012 THE 19th International Conference on AIDS convened by the International AIDS Society (IAS) was held in Washington DC, United States of America from July 22 - July 27, 2012 with an expected attendance of 21,9 AUGUST 2012 THE 19th International Conference on AIDS convened by the International AIDS Society (IAS) was held in Washington DC, United States..."

Colonoscopy Abnormalities In 61% Of German Over-50 Group With HIV
World News, USA – 3 March 2014
In a group of 96 HIV patients over 50 years old in Bonn, Germany, routine colonoscopy detected abnormalities in 61%. "Of German Over-50 Group With HIV"

Loss to Care Rate 17% In Malawian Women Starting Art In Option B+
World News, USA – 3 March 2014
Fewer than 1 in 5 pregnant women starting antiretroviral therapy (ART) under World Health Organization (WHO) Option B+ (universal lifetime ART for pregnant women with HIV) dropped out of care in the first 6 months of therapy, according to a nationwide..."Women Starting Art In Option B+

Ugandan Policies Could Lead to HIV Crisis
Yahoo! Health, USA – 3 March 2014
Once the nation that led Africa's battle against HIV and AIDS, Uganda has made two key moves to criminalize those living with disease. "...World, HIVMA, Association of Nurses in AIDS Care, and International AIDS Society also released a joint statement last week expressing concern over..."
A cure may need multiple components, workshop delegates hear

Aidsmap, United Kingdom – 4 March 2014
Delegates at the community cure workshop in advance of the 21st Conference on Retroviruses and Opportunistic Infections (CROI 2014) in Boston might have been in a less hopeful frame of mind than they had been seven months previously when, at the International AIDS Society conference in Kuala... than they had been seven months previously when, at the International AIDS Society conference in Kuala Lumpur, Delegates at the community cure...

Comparative impact of antiretroviral drugs on markers of inflammation and immune activation during the first two years of effective therapy for HIV-1 infection: an observational study

Bio Med Central, United Kingdom – 4 March 2014
This Provisional PDF corresponds to the article as it appeared upon acceptance. ...France (FHDH ANRS CO04). In Paper presented at: 6th International AIDS Society Conference on HIV Pathogenesis, Treatment and Prevention. Rome,

CROI 2014: HIV Cure May Need Multiple Components, Workshop Delegates Hear

HIVandHepatitis.com, USA – 4 March 2014
Delegates at the community cure workshop in advance of the 21st Conference on Retroviruses and Opportunistic Infections (CROI 2014) this week in Boston might have been in a less hopeful frame of mind than they had been 7 months previously when, at the International AIDS Society conference in Kuala... than they had been 7 months previously when, at the International AIDS Society conference in Kuala Lumpur. Delegates at the community cure workshop...

Virologic Failure Rate 25% In 14 Months At Rural Kenyan Clinic

World News, USA – 4 March 2014
One quarter of adults starting antiretroviral therapy (ART) at a rural clinic in coastal Kenya had virologic failure through 14 months of follow-up. In 14 Months At Rural Kenyan Clinic

Why British Columbia Is A Leader In Life Science Research And Development

BioSpace, USA - 4 March, 2014
A research organization in the Canadian province of British Columbia has teamed up with the United Nations to battle HIV/AIDS....research and Vancouver has been selected to host the 8th International AIDS Society Conference on HIV Pathogenesis, Treatment and Prevention in...

More Than 90% in Mwanza, Tanzania Group Disclose HIV Status to Others

World News, USA - 6 March 2014
More than 9 in 10 HIV-positive adults in a Mwanza, Tanzania study group disclosed their HIV status to another, according to results of a cross-sectional study. ...Group Disclose HIV Status to Others

HIV’s efficiency makes it a formidable foe

FreeNewsPos.com, USA – 6 March 2014
A Person Living with HIV at Kigali morgue in Rwanda....everywhere and the focus now of the scientists and doctors in the International Aids Society, the leading professional HIV organization in the world.

Second Baby Given ART Soon After Birth Has No Detectable HIV DNA

World News, USA - 6 March 2014
A second case of an infant given combination antiretroviral therapy (ART) soon after birth and now apparently clear of HIV in blood and tissue may confirm this immediate-ART approach, first reported a year ago in the so-called Mississippi baby (Persaud D, ...After Birth Has No Detectable HIV DNA

CROI 2014: Boston Patients Experience HIV Rebound after Stem Cell Transplants

HIVandHepatitis.com, USA – 7 March 2014
HIV has re-emerged in 2 Boston men who underwent experimental antiretroviral therapy (ART) interruption after receiving bone marrow stem cell transplants for cancer treatment, Timothy Henrich reported at the 21st Conference on Retroviruses and Opportunistic Infections (CROI 2014) this week in...AIDS Conference, with more detailed follow-up presented at the International AIDS Society meeting last July. The 2 men received donor bone marrow...
DURBAN ICC TO HOST 21ST AIDS CONFERENCE IN 2016
CMW, United Kingdom – 7 March 2014
AFRICA - The Durban International Convention Centre has won its bid to host the 21st AIDS Conference to be held in July 2016. ...to be held in July 2016. The conference, organised by the International AIDS Society, is expected to attract 18,000 delegates from around the...

New HAART Findings Has Been Reported by Investigators at Infectious Disease Service
NewsRx, USA – 7 March 2014
Study results on HAART have been published...reconstitution or normalization of DTH responses during antiretroviral therapy. Journal of the International AIDS Society, 2014:17():1-6. Journal...

Effect of home-based interventions on virologic outcomes in adults receiving antiretroviraltherapy in Africa: a meta-analysis
Bio Med Central, United Kingdom – 7 March 2014
...and opportunistic Infections (CROI) from 2001 to 2012 and the International AIDS Society/International AIDS conference (IAS/AIDS) from 2000...

Canadian scientists studying possible HIV 'cure' for infants
CTV News, Canada – 7 March 2014

Scientists studying whether immediate treatment 'cures' infants of HIV
CP24, Canada – 7 March 2014

The 'Boston patients' experience HIV rebound after stem cell transplants
Aidsmap, United Kingdom – 7 March 2014
HIV has re-emerged in two Boston men who underwent experimental antiretroviral therapy interruption after receiving bone marrow stem cell transplants for cancer treatment, Timothy Henrich reported yesterday at the 21st Conference on Retroviruses and Opportunistic Infections (CROI) in Boston....International AIDS Conference, with more detailed follow-up presented at the International AIDS Society (IAS) meeting last July. The two men received...

Hunt for cure still proving tough
Taipei Times, Taiwan – 8 March 2014
Antiretroviral drugs have been an astounding success, reprieving people with HIV from the brink of death and allowing them to live fuller lives.
...everywhere and the focus now of the scientists and doctors in the International AIDS Society, the leading professional HIV organization in the world,

Comparative effectiveness and cost-effectiveness of antiretroviral therapy and pre-exposure prophylaxis for HIV prevention in South Africa
Bio Med Central, United Kingdom – 10 March 2014

The International AIDS Society (IAS) announces a new grant of £500,000 from ViiV Healthcare to support its Collaborative Initiative for Paediatric HIV Education and Research (CIPHER) (IAS - International AIDS Society)
World News, USA – 10 March 2014
The International AIDS Society (IAS) announces a new grant of £500,000 from ViiV Healthcare to support its Collaborative Initiative for Paediatric HIV Education and Research (CIPHER) Thursday, 6 March 2014 (Geneva, Switzerland) - The International AIDS Society (IAS) announces a new grant of £500,000 from ViiV Healthcare to support its Collaborative Initiative for Paediatric...

Maternal HIV Tied to Congenital CMV Risk in Infants: Lusaka, Zambia
World News, USA – 10 March 2014
Maternal HIV infection raised the odds of congenital cytomegalovirus (CMV) infection more than 6 times in a 395-infant study in Lusaka, Zambia.
...Risk in Infants: Lusaka, Zambia. Maternal HIV...
ART Lowers Risk of Severe Liver Disease up to 41% in US HCV+
World News, USA – 10 March 2014
Starting combination antiretroviral therapy (ART) lowered the risk of hepatic decompensation 28% to 41% in a large study of US male veterans coinfected with hepatitis C virus (HCV)....

Factors Tied to Early Death in HIV+ Meningitis Patients in 4 Countries
World News, USA – 10 March 2014
Higher cerebrospinal fungal burden, slow clearance of Cryptococcus neoformans, and other factors raised chances of death in a study of 501 HIV-positive people with cryptococcal meningitis in Thailand, Uganda, Malawi, ...

Stigma Does Not Affect Loss to Follow-up in Rural KwaZulu-Natal
World News, USA – 11 March 2014
Self-reported HIV stigma did not affect loss to follow-up (dropping out of care) in a study of 380 treatment-eligible people in rural KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa. ...

HIV Prevalence and Incidence Drop Sharply From 2007 to 2012 in Kenya
World News, USA – 11 March 2014
HIV prevalence and incidence both dropped in Kenya in nationally representative samples in 2007 and 2012. ...

Recent AIDS Breakthroughs
Examiner.com, USA – 11 March 2014
Just days ago The Journal of New England Medicine announced that scientists were able to genetically modify white blood cells in 12 HIV patients so that the body was able to fight the virus. ..Health Research, the Canadian Foundation for AIDS Research and the International AIDS Society have found similar results in five Canadian babies.

Drug for HIV babies tested in Canada
Press TV, Iran – 12 March 2014
At least five Canadian children have been treated with a drug regimen some researchers are suggesting may be a cure for HIV infection in infants, Canadian researchers have revealed. ...

Postcard from Vienna: Europe's Stance on International Drug Policy
World News, USA – 12 March 2014
There is no doubt that the debate on international drug policy is gathering pace and, this week in Vienna, we have before us an opportunity in Europe to contribute to that discussion. Postcard from Vienna: Europe's Stance on International Drug Policy

HIV Rebounds Detailed in Two Boston Stem Cell Transplant Patients
NATAP, USA – 12 March 2014
Three and 8 months after HIV in blood and cells remained undetectable off treatment in two Boston men who underwent hematopoietic stem cell transplantation (HSCT), HIV did rebound in both men may have contributed to viral rebound.” At the July 2013 International AIDS Society meeting, Henrich made headlines with the news that 2 men...

High Rate of HIV Infection during Pregnancy, and High MTCT Risk
World News, USA – 12 March 2014
Almost 4 in 100 African women become infected with HIV during pregnancy or postpartum, according to results of a systematic review and meta-analysis....
TB Transmission Halved When CD4 Count lies Under 250 in Lima, Peru
World News, USA – 13 March 2014
HIV-positive people with a CD4 count at or below 250 cells/µL proved half as likely to transmit tuberculosis to household contacts than HIV-negative people in Lima, Peru....Count Lies Under 250 in Lima, Peru

Business Tourists To Contribute Rm20.3 Bln To The Economy This Year, Says MyCEB
Bernama, Malaysia – 13 March 2014
Business tourists are expected to contribute RM20.3 billion to the national economy this year, says the Malaysia Convention and Exhibition Bureau (MyCEB).....Deliver 3rd Global Conference 2013 with 4,500 delegates and 7th International Aids Society (IAS) HIV Conference in Pathogenesis, Treatment and...

Dr. Peter’s injection site improves overall HIV treatment
Metro News, Canada – 13 March 2014
ART Adherence, Duration Cut Risk of Cervical Cancer in Taiwan Women
World News, USA – 14 March 2014
At least 85% adherence to antiretroviral therapy (ART) and treatment for more than 3 years sharply reduced cervical cancer risk in HIV-positive women of Taiwan....Risk of Cervical Cancer in Taiwan Women

Alternative approach to STD’s
AllVoices, USA – 14 March 2014
CAM therapies are widespread in many chronic illnesses, including STDs like HIV Thomas Edison said that "The doctor of the future will give no medicine but will interest his patients in the care of the human frame, in diet and in the cause and prevention of disease."...(energy) in the body. In 2005, at a meeting of the International AIDS Society study presented on acupuncture for easing side effects of AIDs drugs had...