

5th Workshop on Children and Adolescents HIV Exposed and Uninfected

Sunday, 21 July 2019, 8:00-15:30
Pre-Meeting Workshop, IAS 2019
Mexico City

Programme

Time	Topic	Speaker
8:00 – 8:10	Welcome	Martina Penazzato (WHO)

Session 1: The First 1000 days for children who are HIV-Exposed and Uninfected (CHEU) – Part 1

Chairperson: Ute Feucht (University of Pretoria)

8:10-8:20	Overview of the population of children who are HEU	Amy Slogrove (Stellenbosch University)
8:20-8:50	The impact of maternal HIV infection on placental and neonatal immunology among CHEU	Clive Gray (University of Cape Town)
8:50-9:20	ARV exposure and placental morphology/function	Lena Serghides (University of Toronto)
9:20-9:50	Maternal determinants of immunity among CHEU	Arnaud Marchant (Université Libre de Bruxelles)
9:50-10:15	Child mortality, growth and early childhood development – comparing children who are CHEU and children without HIV exposure in the SHINE Trial	Ceri Evans (Queen Mary University London, ZVITAMBO Institute)
10:15-10:40	Infant feeding and WASH interventions among CHEU in SHINE	Andy Prendergast (Queen Mary University London, ZVITAMBO Institute)
10:40-11:00	Tea

Session 2: The First 1000 days for CHEU: Part 2

Chairperson: Rohan Hazra (US National Institutes of Health)

11:00-11:30	Follow-up of CHEU through routine child health services: the Zambian perspective	Priscilla Mulenga (Zambian MoH) and Jane Mutanga (Livingstone Central Hospital)
11:30-12:00	Providing care for CHEU through routine child health services: the South African perspective	Lesley Bamford (SA NDoH) and Ute Feucht (University of Pretoria)
12:00-12:20	Policy updates – integrating CHEU into the Nurturing Care Framework	Martina Penazzato (World Health Organization)
12:20-13:00	Panel discussion
13:00-13:15	Session concluding remarks	Claire Thorne (University College London)
13:15-14:00	Lunch

Session 3: Optional session - Harmonization and Collaboration for scientific advancement

Chairperson: Amy Slogrove (Stellenbosch University)

14:00-14:30	Harmonizing CHEU Exposure and Outcome Data – The INFORM Project	Kate Powis (Massachusetts General Hospital for Children)
14:30-15:00	The DECIPHER Project – Towards consensus on HIV and ARV exposure definitions	Barbara Burmen (University of Cape Town)
15:00-15:30	Discussion and next steps	