

Going beyond: Advancing HIV prevention, testing and treatment in Indonesia through science and community involvement

9-10 November 2022, Mercure Jakarta Batavia Hotel, Jakarta, Indonesia

In partnership with the Indonesia AIDS Coalition (IAC) and HIV AIDS Research Center at Atma Jaya Catholic University of Indonesia (ARC AJCUI)

DAY 1: Wednesday, 9 November 2022

Opening session

Alegria Wolter, Docquity
Indonesia

Opening remarks

Adeeba Kamarulzaman, IAS

Key updates from AIDS 2022, the 24th International AIDS Conference

Session 1 – The path towards innovative HIV prevention strategies in Indonesia

Iskandar Azwa, University of Malaya, Malaysia

Scientific updates on prevention (latest research updates)

Anita Suleiman, Ministry of Health Malaysia
Danvic Rosadiño,
LoveYourself, Philippines

Best prevention practices from the region: The Philippines and Malaysia

Rudi Wisaksana, Universitas
Padjadjaran

Update on where Indonesia stands on prevention, including PrEP

Prof. dr. Dante Saksono
Harbuwono, Sp. PD-KEMD,
PhD, Deputy Minister of Health of Indonesia

Keynote address: Recent progress in the HIV response in Indonesia and overview of the current state of the epidemic

- Lanny Luhukay, MoH
- Rina Purwaningsih,
Yayasan Kalandara
- Vincentius Azvian, Inti Muda
- Sandeep Nanwani, UNFPA
- Dr Nuniek Susiasih, PKC
Kebayoran
- Dr Bagus Rahmat, UNAIDS

Panel discussion: How to improve adherence and prevention among key populations in Indonesia – Moderated by Oktavery Kamil, ARC AJCUI

Session 2 – Leveraging the latest HIV testing strategies to leave no one behind

Agus Kosasih, Dharmais
Cancer Hospital

HIV testing: the latest science and technology

Bao Vu Ngoc, PATH, Vietnam
Pande Putu Januraga,
Udayana University

Increasing HIV testing: Best practices from Vietnam and Indonesia

- Samsuridjal Djauzi, PDPAI
- Dwi Oktavia, Jakarta
Provincial Health Office
- Daniel Marguari, Spiritia
Foundation
- Nita juniarsih, Jaringan
Indonesia Positif
- Asti Setiawati Widihastuti,
UNFPA

Panel discussion: How to promote HIV testing and better reach key and vulnerable populations while fighting stigma and discrimination – Moderated by Aulia Human, EpiC Indonesia, FHI 360

Group work

Session 3 – Improving HIV treatment and responding to co-infections to increase retention in care

Evy Yuniastuti, PDPAI

Latest scientific updates on HIV treatment (including long-acting treatment and same-day ART initiation)

Darma Imran, RSM FKUI

Latest scientific updates on HIV and TB co-infections, including TPT

Wresti Indriatmi, Indonesian PrEP Program Development

HIV and other STIs

- Lanny Luhukay, MoH
- Evi Sukmaningrum, ARC AJCUI
- Irwanto, ARC AJCUI
- Claudius. N. Mone Iye, Peduli Hati Bangsa
- Maulana Setyawan, EpiC Indonesia, FHI 360

Panel discussion on how to improve retention in care through improving HIV and co-infection treatment - Moderated by Alegra Wolter, Docquity Indonesia

Session 4 - The role of social enablers in increasing access to HIV prevention, testing and treatment to improve quality of life

Hyeyoung Lim, The Global Fund

Breaking down human rights barriers in HIV prevention and treatment

Timotius Hadi, Jaringan Indonesia Positif

Community-led monitoring: A tool to increase community participation to improve access to prevention, testing and treatment

Riama Siringo, Lentera Anak Pelangi

Presentation on children living with HIV

- Dr. Fran Daut Ranto, Globalindo
- Ayu Oktariani, Network of Women Living With HIV (IPPI)
- Rito Hermawan, OPSI
- Maria Endang, Director General of Public Health, MoH
- Early Dewi Nuriana, ILO

Panel discussion on social enablers and improving access to quality health and livelihoods - Moderated by Agatha Dafarel, IntiMuda

Group work