

2024 IAS Governing Council Elections

IAS – the International AIDS Society – is pleased to share the results of the 2024 IAS Governing Council elections. We would like to thank IAS Members for their commitment and engagement in the elections. A total of 1,886 members voted, which means that 17.6% of those eligible to vote participated in the elections.

The following IAS Members were elected – using the single transferable vote electoral system – and will serve on the IAS Governing Council for the next four years:

Africa

- Elizabeth Irungu, Kenya – new Governing Council member
- Mehdi Karkouri, Morocco – new Governing Council member

Asia and the Pacific Islands

- Andrew Grulich, Australia – re-elected Governing Council member
- Tetsuro Matano, Japan – new Governing Council member

Europe

- Alexandra Calmy, Switzerland – new Governing Council member
- Laura Waters, United Kingdom – new Governing Council member

Latin America and the Caribbean

- Claudia Cortes, Chile – re-elected Governing Council member
- Omar Sued, Argentina – re-elected Governing Council member
- Monica Thormann, Dominican Republic – re-elected Governing Council member

United States and Canada

- Greg Millett, United States – new Governing Council member
- Renata Sanders, United States – re-elected Governing Council member
- Darrell Tan, Canada – re-elected Governing Council member

The IAS Governing Council 2024-2026 will take office on 26 July at the closing of AIDS 2024. Until then, the current Governing Council remains the thought leadership body of the IAS.

For more information about the voting results, see the voting scores and independent scrutineer's report.