Community Activist Liaison

Paul Jansen is an international consultant from Benalmadena, Spain, working mainly on evaluations and proposal development. Previously, he was an organizational sustainability advisor for the Asia Pacific Coalition on Male Sexual Health (APCOM) in Bangkok, Thailand. He also worked as the Country Director of the Hivos office in Johannesburg, South Africa. Before that, he was the Programme Officer for LGBT rights/HIV & key populations in The Hague, The Netherlands. In that capacity, he developed worldwide Hivos programmes on sexual diversity and rights, as well as on HIV and key populations. He has been working in international development since 1998. Paul also currently serves as a trustee for SAfAIDS in Harare; this is the knowledge and action centre for SRHR and HIV in the Southern African Development Community region.
